

Which of the following statements regarding active shooters is accurate?

- A. The majority of active shooters are males acting alone.
- B. Active shooters target victims with the same physical characteristics as the person they are upset with.
- C. Active shooters are most often between 30-39 years old.
- D. All of the above

Which of the following statements regarding active shooters is accurate?

- A. The majority of active shooters are males acting alone.
- B. Active shooters target victims with the same physical characteristics as the person they are upset with.
- C. Active shooters are most often between 30-39 years old.
- D. All of the above

Where have the majority of active shootings taken place?

- A. Educational institutions (schools)
- B. Areas of commerce (businesses)
- C. Places of worship (churches)
- D. Healthcare facilities (hospitals)

Where have the majority of active shootings taken place?

- A. Educational institutions (schools)
- B. Areas of commerce (businesses)
- C. Places of worship (churches)
- D. Healthcare facilities (hospitals)

Which of the following are possible indicators of workplace violence in a coworker?

- A. Obsession with weapons
- B. Decline in hygiene
- C. Direct or implied threats
- D. All of the above

Which of the following are possible indicators of workplace violence in a coworker?

- A. Obsession with weapons
- B. Decline in hygiene
- C. Direct or implied threats
- D. All of the above

Tim is reading the paper in the break room when he overhears a heated conversation. Todd is agitated about his boss's refusal to promote him. Todd says, "He'll get what's coming to him soon enough." After hearing this, what should Tim do?

- A. Nothing; Todd is just "blowing off steam."
- B. Nothing; what Todd says and does on his break is nobody's business.
- C. Tim should let his supervisor or Human Resources know about the conversation he overheard.
- D. Tim should wait until he has more evidence Todd may be violent before saying anything.

Tim is reading the paper in the break room when he overhears a heated conversation. Todd is agitated about his boss's refusal to promote him. Todd says, "He'll get what's coming to him soon enough." After hearing this, what should Tim do?

- A. Nothing; Todd is just "blowing off steam."
- B. Nothing; what Todd says and does on his break is nobody's business.
- C. Tim should let his supervisor or Human Resources know about the conversation he overheard.
- D. Tim should wait until he has more evidence Todd may be violent before saying anything.

Which of the following are signs of an active shooting in progress?

- A. Gunfire, people being held hostage, and doors to the outside blocked.
- B. Gunfire, sounds of hysteria, and people running.
- C. Fire alarm sounding, people running, and loud whistling sounds.
- D. Fire alarm sounding, cut phone lines, and computer programs not working.

Which of the following are signs of an active shooting in progress?

- A. Gunfire, people being held hostage, and doors to the outside blocked.
- B. Gunfire, sounds of hysteria, and people running.
- C. Fire alarm sounding, people running, and loud whistling sounds.
- D. Fire alarm sounding, cut phone lines, and computer programs not working.

An active shooter is in the building. Marcus is running towards the exit when he passes by Sean, who is sitting on the floor under his desk frozen with fear. What should Marcus do?

- A. Keep running and call Sean's cell phone once he's outside.
- B. Tell Sean to get up and run; if he doesn't, then leave without him.
- C. Tell Sean to get up and run; if he doesn't, then stay with him.
- D. Get Sean off the floor, grab his personal belongings, and help him run toward the door.

An active shooter is in the building. Marcus is running towards the exit when he passes by Sean, who is sitting on the floor under his desk frozen with fear. What should Marcus do?

- A. Keep running and call Sean's cell phone once he's outside.
- B. Tell Sean to get up and run; if he doesn't, then leave without him.
- C. Tell Sean to get up and run; if he doesn't, then stay with him.
- D. Get Sean off the floor, grab his personal belongings, and help him run toward the door.

As an active shooter draws near, Anthony's only option is to defend himself. Which of the following items would make the best "improvised" weapon?

- A. Fire extinguisher
- B. Glass of water
- C. Ballpoint pen
- D. Desk

As an active shooter draws near, Anthony's only option is to defend himself. Which of the following items would make the best "improvised" weapon?

- A. Fire extinguisher
- B. Glass of water
- C. Ballpoint pen
- D. Desk

Dayna is conducting a team meeting in Conference Room B when what sounds like gunshots are heard. The noise appears to have come from the marketing department, which is between the conference room and the nearest exit. What actions should the team take to stay safe?

- A. Lock the door, keep watch out the window, and call 911.
- B. Lock the door and barricade it, shut off the lights, and silence all cell phones.
- C. Hide under the table, behind the door, or inside cabinets.
- D. No action needed; it is most likely fireworks going off.

Dayna is conducting a team meeting in Conference Room B when what sounds like gunshots are heard. The noise appears to have come from the marketing department, which is between the conference room and the nearest exit. What actions should the team take to stay safe?

- A. Lock the door, keep watch out the window, and call 911.
- B. Lock the door and barricade it, shut off the lights, and silence all cell phones.
- C. Hide under the table, behind the door, or inside cabinets.
- D. No action needed; it is most likely fireworks going off.

What is the number one priority of police officers arriving at the scene of an active shooting?

- A. Evacuate the building.
- B. Stop injured people from dying.
- C. Lock down all exits.
- D. Stop the shooter from killing additional people.

What is the number one priority of police officers arriving at the scene of an active shooting?

- A. Evacuate the building.
- B. Stop injured people from dying.
- C. Lock down all exits.
- D. Stop the shooter from killing additional people.

There is an active shooter in the building. As Laura tries to avoid the shooter, she sees police officers arriving. What is the best thing she can do to keep herself and the officers safe?

- A. Stand in front of the officers to get their attention, and then point in the direction of the shooter.
- B. Stand closely behind the officers to shield herself from the shooter, and guide the officers through the building.
- C. Put her hands up and spread her fingers while moving calmly towards an exit.
- D. Run in a zig zag motion towards the officers while pointing in the direction of the shooter and yelling instructions on what room he is in.

There is an active shooter in the building. As Laura tries to avoid the shooter, she sees police officers arriving. What is the best thing she can do to keep herself and the officers safe?

- A. Stand in front of the officers to get their attention, and then point in the direction of the shooter.
- B. Stand closely behind the officers to shield herself from the shooter, and guide the officers through the building.
- C. Put her hands up and spread her fingers while moving calmly towards an exit.
- D. Run in a zig zag motion towards the officers while pointing in the direction of the shooter and yelling instructions on what room he is in.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Report any indication of violence or retaliation—no matter how small it may seem—to your supervisor or Human Resources department.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Report any indication of violence or retaliation—no matter how small it may seem—to your supervisor or Human Resources department.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Dismiss another person's comments as a "joke" or think "it's all talk."

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

-  Dismiss another person's comments as a "joke" or think "it's all talk."

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Shut off the lights, stay away from windows, and line up against the wall with the door on it when hiding from a shooter.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Shut off the lights, stay away from windows, and line up against the wall with the door on it when hiding from a shooter.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Picture yourself as a victim.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Picture yourself as a victim.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Take a minute and plan out possible courses of action when working or meeting in unfamiliar areas.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Take a minute and plan out possible courses of action when working or meeting in unfamiliar areas.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Stop to take belongings with you, especially items you need like your purse, cell phone, and car keys.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Stop to take belongings with you, especially items you need like your purse, cell phone, and car keys.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Pull the fire alarm.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Pull the fire alarm.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Hide under tables or at your desk.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Hide under tables or at your desk.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Fight dirty.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Fight dirty.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Take the gun away from the shooter and keep it in your hands when police arrive.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

-  Take the gun away from the shooter and keep it in your hands when police arrive.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Put your hands up, spread your fingers to indicate you are not carrying a weapon, and avoid any sudden movements when confronted by police officers.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Put your hands up, spread your fingers to indicate you are not carrying a weapon, and avoid any sudden movements when confronted by police officers.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Talk to reporters or post details about the situation on social media.

Do's and Don'ts for Staying Safe

Talk to reporters or post details about the situation on social media.